No. 45. PORTRAIT OF WASHINGTON, BY STUART. George Washington, "Father of his Country," was born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, February 22, 1732; left school at the age of sixteen and became a surveyor; at nineteen was appointed Major and Adjutant General preparatory to his selection for service as messenger from the Virginian to the French Governor in 1753-54. Became Colonel and continued in the army until 1759, when he married, and in the same year entered the Virginia House of Burgesses, and for several years led the life of a planter at Mt. Vernon. Was a delegate to the first and second Continental Congresses and by the latter was appointed Commander-in-Chief, June 17, 1775, and took command of the army. Took leave of the army and officers and resigned his command Dec 23, 1783; presided over the Federal Convention of 1787, of which he was the unanimous choice for President, and was inaugurated at New York, April 30, 1789. Elected again without opposition, he served as President of the United States until 1797; died at Mt. Vernon, Dec. 14, 1799. (See cards Nos. 33, 36, 39, 41, 46 and 46½.)

No. 71. AMERICAN NAVY IN 1812. This very rare and interesting reproduction shows the American fleet of warships off the coast of Maine in 1812. It consists of the "Plymouth," "Wachusett," "Juanita," "Wabash" (Flagship), "Shenandoah" and "Brooklyn." These old time "sloops of war," with their canvas spread and colors streaming from the masthead, were vastly more picturesque than the modern fighting machine, so grim and fierce when stripped for battle, and they were fighters as well, but as compared to the ironclad of to-day they are hardly more than toy gunboats. (See cards Nos. 70 to 75).

No. 95. U. S. S. "PENNSYLVANIA." Armored cruiser; launched at Philadelphia, Pa., August 22, 1903; length 504 feet; breadth 69 feet 6½ inches; draught 24 feet 1 inch; displacement 15,100 tons; speed 22.44 knots; 58 guns and 2 torpedo tubes; 41 officers and 850 men. (See Card No. 92.) An excellent opportunity for comparison between the old navy and the new is presented by the schoolship "St. Mary's" of the old navy to be seen in this view just behind and in front of the "Pennsylvania."

No. 36. WASHINGTON AT PRINCETON. Being unable to cope with the superior forces of Lord Cornwallis at Princeton on Jan. 3, 1777, Washington resorted to strategy. Leaving his campfires burning and a few men working in the trenches, he passed around the British's left and encountered their reinforcements at Princeton. These he routed and, by cutting the lines, forced Cornwallis to retreat to New York, thereby becoming the master of communication between New York and Philadelphia. (For other Washington subjects, see Nos. 37, 39, 41, 45, 46 and 46½.)

This whopping fish I caught to-day,
I got him on the shore,
And if he doesn't get away
Next mail I'll send you more.

This shows his monster fins, you see,
As big as any sail;
You'll get another card from me,
And then you'll have his tail.

His tail it lashed the briny sea,
I dropped my line to run,
And then he got away from me,
And thus my story's done.
